LONDON (AP)—Actor Peter Sellers and his bride of seven months, Britt Ekland, are expecting a baby, says the Daily Express.

The newspaper said the baby is due next January.
Sellers, 38, still is recuperating from a heart attack he suffered in Hollywood last February, six weeks after he married Miss Ekland, 21-year-old Swedish actress.

BOSTON (AP)—An aide of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said today whether the senator will require surgery for a broken back.

Kennedy, brother of the late president, was injured in a plane crash June 19. He is convalescing at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

Commenting on published reports that Kennedy would undergo a fusion operation in six to eight weeks, the aide said:

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Actor's Workshop is a dandy example of how to succeed by being stubborn.

One of the country's best-known, most-lauded theater ventures, it has struggled long against civic apathy. That is where determination comes in.

"In any other city, we'd be doing a lot better," says Jules Irving who founded the group 14 years ago with Herbert Blau. "That's the reason we've got to do it here—and it can be done."

Irving and Blau, New Yorkers who believe that the destiny of American theatrical entertainment lies with resident troupes far from Broadway, stressed their fixity of purpose recently by passing up a tantalizing offer of permanent security for the project—because it would have had to leave San Francisco.

Stanford University proposed professorships for both and enticing production facilities if the workshop moved to Palo Alto, 30 miles away.

The bid was declined at just about the time the Workshop lost out on an effort to obtain the venerable playhouse as a permanent home. Supporters rallied substantial sums, but the property went to a church.

Recently there have been indications that city officials will do something for the group beyond the token contribution of $10,000, given out of the municipal hotel tax during the past couple of years to the Workshop's $300,000 annual budget.

Irving said Mayor John F. Shelley notified him: "This administration is determined to make amends for the neglect of the past."

Under consideration is a plan to allocate space for construction of a Workshop center in a park which is being developed around the old ferry building a landmark at the foot of Market Street.

During its career of 82 productions through this season, the Workshop has played in a loft over a judo school, in an abandoned car storage plant and, currently, stages dramas in two playhouses—one the auditorium of a Marine veterans association, the other a basement two

"No decision has been made about surgery for the senator."

NEW YORK (AP)—Maria and the Met have made up.

Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera, announced that soprano Maria Callas will return to the Met next season as Puccini's Tosca.

That was her last role at the Met — on March 5, 1958.

Early the next season, she and Bing got into a squabble. He insisted that she had broken an agreement to sing a scheduled performance. She insisted she had the right to sing where, when and what she thought best.

"DEAR ABBY"

HE'S GOT A LONG WAIT!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My wife is going to leave me and my two children in the near future. I would like a nice-looking woman between 30 and 40 to keep house for me and the children. I am very lonely and in need of female companionship, and maybe I could fall in love with her. I can't get married again because of my religion so I had better make that plain, but I am sure there are many women who wouldn't mind living like that. She would have to be about five feet two or three. No taller, and not too fat. But I would prefer one a little too plump to one who is skinny. She'd have to be a good cook and housekeeper, and in good blocks away.

The costume and scenery shops are in a backyard five miles across town, and rehearsal facilities are midway between, over a sponge factory.

Another phase of the Workshop's recognition campaign is directed at audience expansion. Attendance averages 52 per cent of capacity—about 75 per cent would assure fiscal ease. During the past two seasons the Workshop has had annual aid of $98,000 from the Ford foundation.

The Workshop over the years has achieved a notable record of accomplishment that has included original works as well as classics.

Since 1954 it has used professional actors only.

ing. I can't pay much, but I have a nice home, automatic heat, and a power lawn mower. Thank you very much.

WAITING
Dear Waiting: If you expect to find a good-cooking cook, housekeeper, companion, playmate, and nursemaid, who will work like a horse in exchange for a roof over her head, forget it. No woman in her right mind would assume all the responsibilities of a wife with none of the benefits.

Dear Abby: For the past four years my husband has been wearing a hair piece. As far as I know, nobody has ever kidded him about it, although I would just as soon he didn't wear it. And so would our children. Late ly he has become very self-conscious about it. He doesn't want to associate with anyone. When someone comes to the door unexpectedly he runs to the bathroom and locks himself in. When we go any place he always wears a hat, no matter how hot it is and he never takes his hat off. He is getting so unfriendly he's not fit to live with anymore. Can you help me?

WORRIED WIFE
Dear Worried: Apparently your husband has developed a fixation about his hair piece. Try to convince him that he looks better without it. If he's unconvinced, perhaps he has been kidded about it, in which case he should shop around for a better one. If that fails, do him the kindness of steering him to a doctor. Could be it's not what is on his head, but what is in it that is really bothering him.

Dear Abby: I would like your opinion on something that has caused a big argument between my mother and me. I am 19 and my boy friend is 20. Sometimes he and I will sit in his car right in front of my house and talk for a little while before I go into the house. I am not saying that he has never given me a good night kiss in the car, but we do not sit out there and neck up a storm. We talk mostly. We don't do anything in his car that we wouldn't do in my house. My mother says that the neighbors are getting their eyes full and they will gossip about me and ruin my reputation. I couldn't care less what the neighbors say. Can you settle this?

CLEAR CONSCIENCE
Dear Clear: "Avoid the appearance of evil." As long as you don't do anything in his car that you wouldn't do in your house, do it in your house. A girl's reputation should be as clear as her conscience. Don't muddy yours needlessly.

Confidential To "Concordian": Don't stay away from church because there are so many hypocrites. There's always room for one more.

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's Socialist party is trying to whip up another Girard case.

The country's No. 2 party handed demands to the Conservative government and the U.S. embassy that a Japanese court try U.S. Marine Pfc. Manuel A. Covarrubias of Wapato, Wash. for the fatal shooting Monday of a Japanese woman. The woman did not obey his orders to halt after he found her in a restricted area at Camp Fuji, near Tokyo.

U.S. military authorities said earlier that Covarrubias was on duty at a U. S. base and primary jurisdiction therefore lay with the United States under the U.S.-Japan Status of Forces agreement.

The Socialists called the shooting "a recurrence of the Girard incident." They demanded that the United States abandon Camp Fuji, and that Japan withdraw from the U.S.-Japan joint security pact.

The Socialists led the protests in trial of U.S. Army Spec. William Girard, who killed a loper.

EVERYONE INVITED

For Progress

I come before you today asking your support in electing me your next County Judge. I am aware of the many responsibilities and duties that rest upon the County Judge. I earnestly believe that the experience that I have will enable me to serve you well. The many fine projects that we all accomplished working together in the past, namely, the Hempstead County Memorial Hospital, the New Nursing Home, The New Health Unit Building on the Court House Grounds, and all the Black Top Roads and Streets in the various towns were well worth our efforts. And all were built without increased taxation upon the public with one exception, the Bonds that were voted to help pay the Countys part of the construction of Memorial Hospital. And these have been paid off and the Tax Millage is not being collected anymore on this.

I would like to come back as your County Judge and pick up the various projects that we had scheduled and planned, along with others that are very badly needed and complete these as fast as humanely possible.

This can be done in time with an all out effort on our part, without any new taxation on the public.

The money for this is available if it is gone after in the right way. But you have to go and ask, then show them that you can deliver the goods. It has been done, it can be done again. But it takes planning and hard work and a lot of aggressiveness. I do know that with your help we can accomplish it together.

I pledge you this. That I shall devote my full time and efforts to helping you to obtain the better things that we need in Hempstead County.

Sincerely,

U. G. Garrett

A Short Short Story © 1964 by NEA, Inc. THE BELLYLAFF

By Esther Lacy

The foreman hurried over to my workbench and told me, "Jack, go right home. The police just called, your house has been robbed!"

"What? Was Carla there? Did anything happen to her?" "Well," the foreman hesitated, "Jack, your wife's unconscious but the police said there's nothing to worry about, she's..."

I dashed out of the plant still wearing my work apron, kept the gas pedal on the floor and six minutes later skidded into the driveway of our new home. We'd returned from our honeymoon last week and I had nightmare visions of my darling Carla battered and bruised. Carla, my child-bride!

There was a police car in the driveway and as I dashed into the house a burly man, obviously a detective, stopped me and asked, "You her husband?" "Yes. Where's my wife?" "Relax, she's okay. On the couch."

There indeed was my Carla, sleeping like an angel, looking cute in her new house dress, her pretty face in repose, seemed younger than her 18 years. There wasn't a mark on her, she looked as if she'd merely stretched out for an afternoon nap.

But the house was in rough shape, drawers ransacked, books knocked off their shelves. I shook Carla but the detective said, "Leave her alone, she took a couple of sleep pills."

"My Carla doesn't need sleep pills, why she once dozed off as we were waiting in line to get into a movie. What happened here?"

"About 5 minutes ago a neighbor noticed a man leaving your place with a suitcase, thought he was acting suspicious and phoned us. We have an alert out for him now, a petty thief who's worked this racket in other towns. This is the first time we..."

"What racket?" I cut in, realizing with a sickening feeling that the silver pitcher, the radio clock, and most of our other

The detective nodded and as he started for the phone his face turned slightly pale. That figured; for no man alive could have eaten a whole half of anything my Clara baked!

As We Forgive-

A fine specimen of young manhood... maybe my neighbor or maybe yours. He is not a bad boy, just one without training. His parents don't like the church and actually boast of never attending. What a tragedy. How unfair to the children of such homes... to put "Other Gods first." This lad needs love, direction, guidance. He needs forgiveness, for only "as we forgive can we be forgiven." Police officers, "Big Brothers" and good church people help but it also requires being acquainted with God. Have you asked the court to parole a boy to you instead of allowing him to go to jail? Maybe he needs just one more chance. The manifold mercies of Heaven are available, if a man, woman or child will turn in good purpose to Him. The church on the corner can help any boy, or girl, or man, or woman. Won't you see for yourself?
